

HGTV

magazine

LOVE TO HOUSE HUNT?
Peek at dozens of homes inside!

PREMIERE ISSUE!

Genevieve Gorder

David Bromstad

Try their real-life
DESIGN TRICKS

Fun, fast makeovers

83 super-easy ways to perk up your rooms (instant sofa facelift on page 53)

* Bright, cheerful kitchens!

40 stylish finds under $20

Totally Teal by Glidden

the wow factor

"Teal is a happy, calm color," says Emily Henderson, host of Secrets From a Stylist. Her trick: Pick one that's more blue than green, and pair it with rust, berry, or tangerine—but not black. "That combo can get '80s real fast."

Water Drops
by Benjamin Moore

the wow factor

When putting two strong colors side by side, take a cue from a flower garden. Sarah Shetter and Alison Palevsky of SPI Design in Santa Monica matched these hues to bougainvillea in the client's yard.

Razzle Dazzle (left) and Melrose Pink, both by Benjamin Moore

the wow factor

Lee Ann Thornton of Thornton Designs in Greenwich, CT, chose cool aqua for a teen's room. But she also loves it in a dining room, paired with charcoal drapes.

